1. We acknowledge and appreciate your concern regarding CAMS II (P/S) training as expressed in the references. Specifically, we are taking the following steps to satisfy the three areas of concern which you addressed:

- . Classroom Space: We have arranged for space within the Ames building on a temporary basis (Oct 83 through Mar 84). This will provide sufficient space for a temporary classroom which covers your critical time period (Feb through Mar 84) along with sufficient lead time for instructor preparation, data base building, etc. This will also provide flexibility for both COMIREX and OTE in scheduling and determining the optimum location for classes.
- . Terminals/Communications Lines: Communications lines to and within Ames are not a problem. The Office of Communications will be able to provide sufficient lines within Ames by Oct 83 and will schedule them as soon as an exact location is identified. We believe that ODP will be able to provide sufficient terminals from the CAMS 84 allocation in Oct 83.
- . Instructors: OTE has assured us that the additional instructors required for CAMS II (P/S) training will be available in Jan 84. This may necessitate special
